SPRECHER FREED ON $5,000 BOND; HEARING MONDAY

Audit Report Expected To Be Completed Early This Week

NO SUCCESSOR TO DUGAN APPOINTED

Sprecher's Bond Reduced From $10,000 to $5,000 On Motion

Samuel R. Sprecher, charged with receiving money previously embezzled from the city of Sedalia, was released on bond late Friday afternoon, for his appearance in the justice court of W. H. Leslie, at 9 o'clock Monday morning, for a preliminary hearing. The bond, which was reduced from $10,000 to $5,000, was signed by Mrs. Eunice Conway, Mrs. Sprecher's sister, and Rol Bealart.

The bond had been placed at $5,000 on each of two charges, on recommendation of J. L. Harried, prosecuting attorney. On motion filed by Fred Ross, attorney, who represented Sprecher at the hearing, it was reduced to $2,500 on each charge.

Sprecher's arrest followed that of Tom E. Dugan, city collector, who confessed Wednesday afternoon to highway patrol officers, that he had faked a story of being slugged and robbed, and had set fire to records in the office, to cover up a shortage of $5,000 or $6,000, money which he had embezzled. He waived a preliminary hearing, and gave bond for his appearance in circuit court. Friday afternoon Dugan employed H. T. Williams, attorney, to represent him.

Dugan has handed his written resignation to Mayor Bagby who stated that nothing would be done toward the appointment of a successor until the audit is completed.

Mayor Bagby also stated Saturday night, it is not known when the audit will be completed, and the offices in the city hall will be closed all next week, and possibly longer. He expects to have a report from the auditors the early part of the week, giving approximately the shortage.

LOSES A FINGER IN BUZZ SAW ACCIDENT

Gilbert Hartman, 22 years old, Seventeenth street and Summit avenue, suffered a severe injury to his right hand and arm about 10:30 o'clock Saturday morning when he got caught in a home-made saw mill, while cutting wood at 1416 East Eleventh street.

The middle finger on the hand was so badly cut, it was amputated at the Bothwell hospital where he was rushed in the McLaughlin ambulance a few minutes after the accident occurred. The large saw cut up his arm from the hand almost to the elbow, but the bones in the arm were not believed to have been injured.

Dr. E. C. Snively who was called to the hospital attended the injured man.

According to Frank Bryan, Jr., who was assisting Hartman, Hartman was standing at the rear of the machine, when he, Bryan, cut the motor off so they could fill the radiator on the engine with water. The saw blade was coasting and Hartman walked around the end of the machine and in some manner his hand and arm dropped on the saw.

Hartman had taken his saw mill to the Bryan home to cut up some firewood. The two young men had started operation but a few minutes before the accident occurred.

TSINGTAO FEARS SEA ATTACK BY JAPANESE FLEET

France May Protest An Insult By Nipponese Troops

By The Associated Press.

SHANGHAI, Jan. 9.—(Sunday)—Arrival of a Japanese fleet off Tsingtao, rich North China port, created fear among foreigners and Chinese today of an impending Japanese attack.

In Shanghai, meanwhile, French officials indicated they probably would protest to Japan against an assault by Japanese troops on police of the French concession yesterday.

The incident, the second clash in two days between Japanese soldiers and foreign police, brought Japanese guns into line for more than an hour on the border between Nantao and the French concession.

The French rushed two armored cars of reinforcements to the area but the menacing situation was hastily dissolved by an agreement between French Consul Pierre Auge and Japanese officials, French authorities declared, nevertheless, they probably would make a formal protest.

Ships Near Foreign Area Reports from Tsingtao said eight Japanese vessels—three mine sweepers and five destroyers—approached close to the foreign residential area late Saturday night. They returned to the rest of the fleet, however, after a short time.

Early today the craft were remaining distantly offshore, without any indications of their purpose.

What ships were lying off the port was not known. Some demands for consideration of other legislation become strong enough to force supporters of the anti-

MOVE TO AVOID ELECTION FRAUD

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 8.—(P)—A system of fingerprinting or photographing election registration applicants was recommended by a Jackson county grand jury today in its report to Judge Ben Terte.

It also recommended another grand jury be called to make a complete investigation of the "widespread attempts at fraud in the filing of applications for registration." The retiring grand jury was called Dec. 8 by Judge Ben Terte to investigate the "spook" juror scandal.

Four "spooks" were assessed jail sentences and their summons broker, George (Frenchy) Andren, was sentenced to three years in prison. Two sheriff's deputies have been dismissed. The grand jury, although studying the scandal, made no further indictments.

The new election board, named by Gov. Lloyd C. Stark several months ago, already had suggested that it might adopt either fingerprinting or photographing applicants to cut down the number of questionable applications.

JOHN C. MILLS, JR., TO RUN FOR CONGRESS

KIRKSVILLE, Mo., Jan. 8.—(P)—John C. Mills, Jr., Adair county probate judge, announced tonight he would be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for First District congressman, an office now held by Rep. M. A. Romjue, Democrat.

He launched his campaign at a Jackson day banquet here. Probate judge since 1922, he served two terms as prosecuting attorney starting in 1914. Judge Mills is a graduate of Missouri university, class of 1912, is a director of the Citizens Road Association of Missouri and on the board of the American Aberdeen-Angus Breeders' association.

CLARK SAYS FDR FACES FIGHT OF ANDREW JACKSON

Senator Gives Principal Talk at Springfield's Annual Banquet

GIVES PRAISE TO FOREIGN POLICY

Relates Challenge of 1829 President at Dinner Honoring Jackson

By The Associated Press.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Jan. 8.—Andrew Jackson's memorable fight against the Bank of the United States was pictured tonight by Senator Bennett Champ Clark as analogous to Franklin D. Roosevelt's opposition to the nation's "monetary barons."

Both presidents, Missouri's senior United States senator said, were accused by their "intense sympathy with the problems of the great mass of our citizens, whom Abraham Lincoln called the 'common man' and whom Roosevelt once called the 'forgotten man'."

Clark, describing himself as what might be called an "idolator" of the "hero of New Orleans," spoke before a large gathering of Missouri Democrats at Springfield's annual Jackson Day banquet.

"Jackson faced a situation," Clark said, in which the whole fiscal situation of the government was virtually at the mercy of a privately controlled corporation, the Bank of the United States, under the dictatorship of one man, Nick Biddle of Philadelphia. By the tremendous power of his institution, the government itself was at its mercy for financing operation.

"In perhaps the most memorable of the political battles of his presidency, Jackson challenged the power of the money monopoly, announced his unalterable opposition to the re-charter of the bank of the United States and when congress passed the bill for re-charter, risked his

AGAINST DEBATE ON ANTI-LYNCHING PROPOSAL ON AIR

President's Reorganization Measure Awaits Action On Bill

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—(AP)—Friends and foes of the anti-lynching bill talked today of carrying the controversy to the country in radio addresses next week.

In the senate chambers, Senator Reynolds (D-N. C.) carried on what advocates of the measure call a southern filibuster designed to prevent a vote.

Reynolds discussed such topics as Mexican-American relations, the relative size of European armies, the value of airplanes in war, the cost of battleships, the alien problem and the physical strength of Jack Dempsey.

The senate's usual Saturday session was called by Senator Barkley of Kentucky, the Democratic leader, in an effort to hurry a vote on the anti-lynching measure and clear the way for consideration of administration bills.

Action on President Roosevelt's reorganization bill and other measures is awaiting disposition of the anti-lynching proposal. Opponents of the latter are hopeful they can delay a vote until December.

Toll Grows in Plane Search

Lieut. T. E. Carpenter

Cadet Philip O. Browning

TWO MISSOURIANS, OBJECT OF A HUGE NAVY SEARCH IN WHICH ONE JEFFERSON CITY BOY WAS KILLED; TWO OTHERS INJURED AND A PLANE COMPLETELY DESTROYED BY FIRE.

SAN PEDRO, Calif., Jan. 8.—(AP)—Injury of two men and the loss of a bombing plane by fire added to the search toll today as the navy's great sea and air armada continued the quest for the twin-motored bomber that disappeared during maneuvers on the Pacific late Wednesday.

Hope for the safety of the giant seaplane and its complement of seven diminished by the hour but the 35 fighting ships and 283 planes continued unabated their activities over 60,000 square miles.

Admiral Arthur J. Hepburn, commander-in-chief of the fleet, sent a radio message to the Associated Press telling of a landing crash aboard the airplane carrier Saratoga yesterday in which Pilot Lieut. J. M. Elliott suffered second degree burns and M. A. Belgium, a seaman, was cut and bruised.

The bomber caught fire and sank after the accident, the message said.

Previously Cadet Scott P. Hawkins, of Jefferson City, Mo., fell from a searching plane and plunged into the sea. He was given up as dead.

Two Clues to Fate

The search today was continued along the lines of the previous days as the fleet searched an area extending from San Luis Obispo, Calif., to Lower California.

"Decision as to the discontinuation of the search," said the admiral's message, "cannot be made at present."

Two clues as to the fate of Lieut. Truman E. Carpenter, pilot, and his crew aboard the bomber bopped up and then were dissipated during the day.

The coast guard cutter No. 411 discovered a patch of oil on the surface of the calm Pacific near

ITALY A POTENT FACTOR IN RACE FOR WAR-POWER

To Hold Three-day Conferences Involving Three Nations

BUDAPEST, Hungary, Jan. 8.—(AP)—A struggle for the balance of power in southeast Europe—most intense in Europe's powder keg since 1914—took new shape today with Italy as a potent factor.

Semi-official sources outlined an important three-day conference starting here Monday of the foreign ministers of three nations—Count Galeazzo Ciano of Italy, Guido Schmidt of Austria and Koloman Von Kanya of Hungary.

Their talks, said the source, demonstrate solidarity of these Rome pact nations and will help their mutual trade with a new commercial agreement.

But larger issues, hanging greatly on Rumania's possible disposition of her allies' foreign policy by close friendship with Germany and Italy, were expected to take the ministers' attention.

Rumania's rapprochement with Germany and Italy, a move initiated by the anti-semitic Rumanian premier Octavian Goga, upsets the unified pro-French policy of the little entente—Rumania, Czechoslovakia, and Yugoslavia. This shift is of prime importance to the conferring foreign ministers.

Perhaps it might drive Hun-

DELEGATES FOR FARM MEETING JAN. 26 NAMED

Clover and Prosperity Conference Expected To Attract Many

Every community in Pettis County has several delegates appointed to this year's annual Clover and Prosperity Conference to be held in the assembly room of the court house, at Sedalia, on Wednesday, January 26, 1938, as announced by George R. Wilkerson, chairman of the meeting.

The delegate list of last year's conference has been carefully checked by the conference committee and those who have either taken an active part in former conferences or have taken an active interest in the soils, crops, pasture improvement, and soil conservation problems of Pettis County are being invited to attend.

An interesting program is in store for those who attend, with delegates as well as a specialist from the college taking part in the discussions.

This annual conference has become one of the most important meetings held during the year by Pettis County farmers. Not only does it give an excellent opportunity for an exchange of ideas, but also gives an opportunity to receive new information that will be of value to Pettis County farmers in planning their farming operations in the future. Sloan With $561,000 Leads List Of the Country's Highest Paid

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—A congressional committee, giving the public a peek into the 1936 pay envelopes of the nation's highest paid industrialists, movie stars and financiers, disclosed today that Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., of General Motors, topped the list with $561,311.

The house ways and means committee divulged the information, which had been given to the treasury, by corporations which paid employees salaries, bonuses, commissions and other compensation of $15,000 or more during the 1936 tax year.

Thirteen men received in excess of $200,000 each for the year, the report showed, and nine of them were officials of the General Motors Corporation. William S. Knudsen, its vice-president, ranked second to Sloan with $459,878.

In the entertainment world, Gary Cooper was tops with $370,214. Ten movie and radio stars received more than $200,000. In addition to Cooper, this group included Ronald Colman, $362,500; Claudette Colbert, $350,833; Mae West, who led the list for the preceding year, $323,333; Madeline Carroll, $287,813; Warner Baxter, $284,384; Marlene Dietrich, $269,333; Ruth Chatterton, $249,500; Charles Boyer, $249,145; and Ruby Vallee, $238,744.

The report showed that 336 General Motors Corporation officials received $15,000 or more and 56 of them at least $50,000.

Some of the other top-flight industrialists and their compensation included:

Eugene G. Grace, president of the Bethlehem Steel Corp., $180,000; Charles M. Schwab, Bethlehem board chairman, $150,000; Edsel B. Ford, president of Ford Motor Co., Detroit, $137,564; James H. Rand, Jr., president of Remington-Rand, Inc., Buffalo, N. Y., $118,371; Ernest T. Weir, board chairman, Wierton Steel Co., Wierton, W. Va., $71,785. Weir also was listed as receiving an identical amount from the Great Lakes Steel Corporation.

COUNTY TO BUY YMCA BUILDING FOR JAIL HOUSE

Plans Underway to Make Purchase the Latter Part of Month

WILL PAY $10,000 FOR THE BUILDING

Part of Space to Be Used For Additional Public Offices

Plans are underway for the consummation of a deal the latter part of this month, whereby the county will purchase the former Y. M. C. A. building, on the northeast corner of Fifth street and Lamine avenue, convert it into a modern jail, and have in addition certain rooms which may be used for public offices, supplementary to the regular offices.

Last July the members of the county court sent for directors of the Y. M. C. A. building and discussed the probability of the county purchasing the property, if the price was, in their opinion, reasonable.

The directors stated that in as much as the building had been built by popular subscription, and was no longer used for religious or charitable purposes, they hoped it could be used for a public purpose, and named a price of $10,000. The county took the option with the understanding that if, at the end of the year the budget permitted a surplus of $10,000, and they could legally make the purchase, they would do so.

The year has closed, the county has the surplus, and arrangements have been made to perfect the title by foreclosing the deed of trust. The building will be bought in by some one and conveyed by them to the county.

Plans for the remodeling of the building have not been perfected, but will be within a short time.

For many years the county jail has been in a dilapidated condition and annually a grand jury has recommended the construction of a new one.

FEAR JAPANESE WILL TURN ON WHITE NATIONS

Belief Follows Action of Invaders in Shanghai District

LONDON, Jan. 8.—(P)—Japan's demands for increase power in Shanghai and attacks on British subjects today revived fears that Japanese military leaders are determined to drive western powers from China.

Such apprehension was expressed by responsible quarters through, officially, the foreign office left to Shanghai British authorities the task of dealing with the Japanese manhandling of British policemen.

Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain was understood to plan a review of the entire troubled Chinese situation with individual cabinet members Monday and with Sir Hugh Knatchbull-Hugessen, former British ambassador to China.

Sir Hugh is recovering from wounds inflicted by Japanese in China last summer.

These quarters held that Japan not only had failed to prove her promised "ability" to control Japanese militarists but had neglected to satisfy Great Britain on these three points:

1. What specific action is being taken against the officers responsible for the attack on the British gunboat Ladybird and other shellings;

2. What is being done about the British request for safety zones for neutral shipping;

3. What action is being taken by Japan to guard against further violation of territorial waters around Hongkong, British crown colony in South China.

ROBBER SHOT IN HEAD TWICE BY K. C. POLICE

By The Associated Press.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 9.—Police late today shot a man in the head twice as he was running from the scene of a drug store holdup. At a hospital, where his condition was reported critical, the man refused to give his name.

W. C. Bremer, proprietor, said the man took $23.55 and two pints of whiskey. Three customers, two of them women, were in the store at the time.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT TO WAGE NO COMPROMISE FIGHT TO THE LAST DITCH AGAINST RULING MINORITY

HIGHLIGHTS OF FDR'S TALK

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—(P)—Here are some sentences from President Roosevelt's address at a Democratic dinner here tonight:

"We know that there will be a few—a mere handful of the total of business men and bankers and industrialists—who will fight to the last ditch to retain such autocratic controls over the industry and the finances of the country as they now possess.

"With this handful it is going to be a fight—a cheerful fight on my part, but a fight in which there will be no compromise with evil—no let up until the inevitable day of victory.

"The white house door is open to all our citizens who come offering to help eradicate the evils that flow from undue concentration of economic power or unfair business practices. . . .

"As we move forward under our present momentum, it is not only necessary but it is right that the party slough off any remains of sectionalism and class consciousness.

"In the long run the instincts of the common man, willing to live and let live, work out the best and safest balance for the common good."

LAST OF REBEL SOLDIERS LEAVE CITY OF TERUEL

Stronghold Taken by Government Troops After 18-Day Battle

BARCELONA, Spain, Jan. 8.—(P)—Government officers at Teruel reported tonight the last insurgent garrison within the city had surrendered and Teruel "is entirely ours."

Resistance collapsed, a government communique said, with the surrender of insurgents who had fought desperately for 18 days in the shell-shattered buildings of Santa Clara convent.

This was the second stronghold in the beleaguered city to capitulate within two days, the other being the Asuncion hospital where 2,000 insurgents, including 500 women, children and wounded, gave up last night.

The Bishop of Teruel was with the first group to leave the convent the communique said. The group also included 144 soldiers.

Other troops and civilians still remained in the convent, but government officers said there had been no fighting in the city since early this morning.

Colonel Barba, in charge of the insurgents, was attempting to clarify the surrender terms for those remaining, the communique said, but "negotiations are virtually completed."

In Need of Food All the refugees and prisoners were being taken to Valencia as soon as they came out, the government said. They were weak and emaciated from lack of food. Many of them were too weak to stand.

Reports from Hendaye, Franco-Spanish frontier, said an insurgent war communique today asserted Generalissimo Francisco Franco's troops hammering at Teruel had moved forward in three sectors.

The dispatch made no mention of the reported surrender to the government of Lieut. Col. Rey D' Harcourt's besieged garrison of 1,500 inside Teruel.

Government troops took the offensive on the heights above Teruel and reported the capture of a number of key positions.

Chief Executive Pledges Cooperation with Those Against Evils

GIVES JACKSON DAY ADDRESS TO NATION

Speech is Heard at Many Dinners Held Throughout the Country

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—(P)—President Roosevelt gave tonight that he would wage a no compromise fight against a minority of "business men, bankers and industrialists."

That minority intends to make a struggle "to the last ditch to retain autocratic control" over the country's economy, the president charged in a Jackson day address to the nation.

The chief executive pledged cooperation with all who were willing to "help eradicate the evils that flow from undue concentration of economic power or unfair business practices."

The president spoke at the annual dinner here of Democrats celebrating Andrew Jackson's victory in the battle of New Orleans. His words went by radio to similar Democratic dinners throughout the land.

"The white house door is always open to all our citizens who come offering to help eradicate the evils that flow from undue concentration of economic power or unfair business practices—who offer to do all that is possible by cooperative endeavor and to aid in corrective and helpful legislation where necessary," he said.

"We know that there will be a few—a mere handful of the total of business men and bankers and industrialists—who will fight to the last ditch to retain such autocratic controls over the industry and the finances of the country as they now possess.

"With this handful, it is going to be a fight—a cheerful fight on my part, but a fight in which there will be no compromise with evil—

PLANE CRASHES INTO K. C. HOUSE

KANSAS CITY, Kas., Jan. 8. A naval reserve plane plummeted to earth today after touching wings with its "foe" in a mock aerial battle at 5,000 feet and crashed into a house in which a widow lay ill of heart disease. The pilot and his observer parachuted to safety.

Capt. Benjamin Southworth, 29, a Kansas City marine reserve officer, said after the planes touched, he felt his ship slide to the left, then go into a tailspin. When the ship tumbled to 1,500 feet, Captain Southworth said he ordered his observer, William Gregory of Kansas City, also a member of the reserve, to jump. He followed a moment later.

Gregory suffered a leg injury. Southworth was unhurt.

The nose of the plane protruded into a room in the home of Mrs. Anna Hurley. She suffered from shock following the crash but was not injured by wreckage.

WHERE DECENCY RULES

Frederick Nelson in Baltimore Sun:
It is all very well to attribute the indecency and brutality of the new aggression to the fact that some nations "have not" all they would like to have. But Sweden, Denmark and Switzerland are also "have-not" nations, and you can travel in all of them without being shoved around by bores in uniform, and nobody in Europe stands in fear of any of them.

Why? I don't know, but it isn't because they are essentially richer than Germany, Italy or any international nuisance you care to name. Perhaps they have solved their internal problems more sensibly. But must all the world tremble because some countries prefer to threaten or even attack their neighbors rather than clean up their own back yard? Must we be panicked by the plight of "overpopulated" nations which give prizes for twins and bar Margaret Sanger? If Hitler prefers guns to butter and is able to enforce that choice on 60,000,000 suckers, I fail to see why we should sympathize when he turns those guns on his neighbors.

We are often told that this is a sentimental age, that we coddle criminals, spoil children and pamper animals. The charge may be true, but there is one excess of sentimentality which will have consequences more disastrous than all the others if we persist in indulging it. I refer of course, to the growing habit of coddling aggressors, militarists and quick bombing dictators. Some day we must face the fact that it is no service to a "have-not" nation to encourage policies which are rapidly producing a have-not world. Of course, the rest of us will have to make concessions, but we shall hardly be equipped to make useful concessions until we cease murmuring, "Poor fellow" every time a dictator tries to get rich by bombing a hospital.

MERRY GO ROUND

TRADE MARK REGISTERED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Probably none of the Nine Old Men appreciated the situation, but this week they handed the most sincere of all compliments to a lower court judge who came within a hair's-breadth of sitting with them on the supreme court.

The judge was John J. Parker of the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals, and the case was that of the Duke and Alabama Power Companies, in which the Nine virtually reversed themselves to decide with Judge Parker.

That same Judge Parker was appointed to the supreme court in 1930 by Herbert Hoover, but rejected by the senate liberals. Ever since then they have regretted their mistake. For Judge Parker has turned out to be a better Liberal than many of them, and the man appointed in his place—Justice Owen J. Roberts—has knifed some of the most important advances the senate liberals stood for.

Senate Liberals
If the senate liberals had had more understanding of human nature than of high-flown principles, they would not have erred so grievously.

W. S. Robinson, who represented the power interests in the cases decided this week, had better insight. Talking to the opposition attorney during the hearings, he said:

"Parker tries to be conservative, but he can't. He just hasn't got it in him."

As a matter of fact, John Parker got his start as a radical in the University of North Carolina. "Queen" was what they called him then. He refused to join a fraternity, claimed it was undemocratic, said he didn't want any advantages not open to other boys.

Whereupon, without advantages, he made himself one of the outstanding men of his college generation, a star debater, football player, and a candidate for congress on the republican ticket when he was only 24 years old. Being a Republican and in North Carolina he lost; but ten years later he ran again as a Republican, this time for governor.

Supreme Court Battle
It was at this point in his career that Parker made a statement destined to cost him his seat on the supreme court. Branded by Democrats with their favorite campaign epithet for Republicans—"nigger lover"—Parker tried to counteract its political effect by stating publicly that he wanted no Negro support.

"Participation of the Negro in politics is a source of evil and danger to both races," he said, "and is not desired by the wise men of either race or by the Republican party of North Carolina."

This statement, made in 1920, was dug up ten years later by Walter White, head of the Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and it hurt just enough to defeat Parker's nomination for the highest bench.

The A. F. of L. also campaigned against him because a famous decision of his in a labor injunction case had upheld the "yellow dog" contract. To this Parker replied that he had merely followed the then precedent of the supreme court.

With this combination of forces against him, Parker was defeated by a vote of 41 to 39, splitting the Republican party wide open. It was the first time the senate had rejected a supreme court nomination in 36 years, and the first out-and-out reversal against President Hoover. And today the very men who defeated him are applauding Parker's pro-New Deal decisions.

Note—Among these, Ed McGrady, ex-Assistant Secretary of Labor, then lobbyist for the A. F. of L., rallied many votes against Parker, now sees eye to eye with Parker on recent decisions.

Courteous But Frank
Judge Parker is a tall, rather handsome man, with a frank, open face, and a naive personality when off the bench. He is genial, hearty, makes it a practice to come down to mingle in court during recesses, chatting and smoking with the attorneys of both sides.

He conducts his court in a most delightful manner, although with dignity, and the Fourth Circuit Court has the reputation of being the most courteous in the country. If the court takes up an attorney's time by asking questions, additional time is added for his argument.

Parker is a good lawyer; his decisions being clear and to the point. While court is in session he works like a horse and during the Duke case surprised attorneys by reading a brief filed at 5 p. m. and asking questions from it in court the next morning.

Judge Parker took his rebuff from the senate graciously, and showed not the slightest sign of frustration. But he did seem to take a certain malicious glee in showing up some of the conservative gentlemen beside whom he came so near sitting.

When the Duke Power case first came before him, Parker immediately found in favor of the New Deal, decreeing that the Public Works Administration did have the power to lend money to municipalities for the erection of power plants.

Reverses The Nine
This decision was sent on to his would-have-been colleagues a year ago and in December, 1935, they stalled. They refused to make a decision, and sent the case back to Judge Parker's district court on the basis of a technical or "harmless" error, which according to an act of congress, should not be taken into consideration by the supreme court.

This December stalling, which meant a full year's delay for PWA loans on municipal power plants, was the last straw which prompted Roosevelt to make his supreme court fight.

Part of that fight, it will be remembered, was a castigation of the nine justices for taking off the entire summer when important cases were hanging fire. Roosevelt suggested that they do some work during the holidays. Immediately thereafter, Judge Parker showed that he at least was not afraid of extra work by calling a special session of his court in Asheville for August 3.

Three days later he handed down a decision completely favorable to the New Deal. This prompt action permitted the Duke case to get to the supreme court this winter. Otherwise it might have gone over for another year—tying up 61 cities and $109,700,000 of cash.

This week's supreme court decision, unanimously upholding Judge Parker, has started speculation as to whether Roosevelt might send his name to the senate once more when further vacancies occur. Parker is now 53, three years younger than the president, presumably would not be considered an old man.

Note—The man to keep your eye on to fill the immediate vacancy, left by the retirement of Justice Sutherland of Utah, is Harold Stephens, also of Utah. Stephens had a fighting record in the justice department, now is a member of the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia, where he is doing a brilliant job.

Another possibility is Judge Joseph C. Hutcheson, Jr., of the U. S. Circuit Court in Texas.

ALL of US

All God's Chillun Got Gusto
WHAT I LIKE is Gusto.
You know what Gusto is? It's just another name for Joy of Living, for Love of Life.

You may not have it, but you know it when you see it . . . everywhere. A puppy panting and wagging and running for a ball and scrambling all over you . . . A big man laughing from the deep center of his being, raising a great shout that echoes from hill to hill. . . . A woman with a merry laugh, a woman whose heart may be broken and who's never more than an inch away from tears, but who smiles and dances and makes happy everyone who comes within a foot of her.

I don't mean Excitement-Eaters. I don't mean Professional Comedians. I don't mean those wise-cracking, story-telling lads who always are the Life of the Party. I don't mean People with a Line. They haven't true Gusto. They're fakes—little children pretending they are having a good time, little children who will fuss and whine later on, when it's time to go to bed.

I mean those hearty, wholesome, healthy people of this world who don't know when they are hurt, who will weep for you, but never weep about themselves, who see the dark and taste the bitter, but laugh because they can't help it and sing for joy as they travel through the shadows . . . Those are the people I like and I can't see too much of them.

All God's Chillun, they say, got wings. Maybe so, but all God's Chillun got Gusto, too—and Gusto is the pair of wings that lifts them above grouches and self-pity and solemn, stupid seriousness and makes them a joy to all who know them—and gives them joy of living, whatever may happen to them. Give me that joy of living every day, give me that Gusto for myself! Or if, for my sins, I may not have it—give me a friend who loves life as easily and naturally as that puppy at his knee! If HE has Gusto, he'll share it with me.

Modernizing History!

The scene was a Hollywood film studio. Thousands of "extras," attired as French revolutionaries storming the Bastille, filled the lot.

In the foreground, on a rostrum, was the director, bawling through a megaphone:

"We're going to do this over and over again—until the guy shouting 'woopee' decides to cooperate."

"I was glad when they said unto me
let us go into the house of the Lord."

Richest Girl in the World

CAST OF CHARACTERS
CONSTANCE CORBY—heroine; richest girl in the world.
RODNEY HARDESTY—hero; bridge builder.
RODNEY BRANDON—Connie's fiancé.
KATIE BLYN—Connie's "double."

Yesterday, Constance Corby, on the eve of her announcement party, is the richest girl in the world but certainly not the happiest. She reflects on this as she whirls out on the dance floor with her fiancé, Rodney Brandon.

CHAPTER II

"AND now that everyone's drunk a toast to our happiness and you've danced until your pretty silver slippers must be worn through, when are you going to marry me?" Rodney asked. He had persuaded Connie to slip away to the little summer house that often served as a rendezvous when they wanted a few moments alone.

"When?" Connie murmured. "When," Rodney repeated. "You can't expect me to wait much longer, darling. In fact I can't see any reason now for waiting at all."

Connie tilted her head to one side, regarding him. "You manage to sound like the impatient lover, Rodney—almost. Somehow, you don't make it quite convincing. For my part I can't see any reason to hurry."

From the marquee the low music of a languid waltz floated out to them, mingling with the soft shush-shush of the surf pounding against the wall. A night for romance, surely; the stage all set, the characters in costume. Yet—was romance missing?

"You're not going to keep putting me off now, I hope," Rodney bent toward her, smiling. He was seldom ruffled, seldom angry. He was too poised; one might have said, too perfect. Just as he was almost too handsome in his impeccable dinner jacket.

Connie shrugged her lovely shoulders. Sometimes she wished Rodney would get angry. It would make life more exciting. What fun was it to quarrel, if the other person never would fight back? She said, "I'll marry you next year, or tomorrow. What difference will it make? Things will just go on the same, anyway."

Rodney laughed. "That's not too flattering to my male vanity. But as I've told you, I'll take you on any terms, my dear. I'm such a lucky beggar to get you." He took her hand in his. "Would you really marry me tomorrow, darling?"

"Why not?" Connie asked. He said, "I wish I could believe you."

"You could, perhaps, if you'd make me believe myself . . . What's that?" She threw back her head, listening. There had been a sound in the vines on the wall, or from the trees overhead, that must have been more than the wind sighing.

RODNEY said he had not heard anything. He said, "You see. Already you're trying to elude the issue at hand. Tomorrow it will be the same. It's taken me all my life even to make you announce our engagement. I wish I could make you . . ."

"I know I heard something,"

HE did not seem to resent the intrusion. "Oh, let the fellow

Suddenly there was a flash of blinding light. A voice said, "Hold it!" A man had slipped up the stairs toward them.

Connie interrupted. "Perhaps we should go back." She got to her feet. He jumped to his. He put his arms around her.

"Don't go—not quite yet," he pleaded. She did not resist him. Yet there was no response in her arms or on her lips.

Suddenly there was a loud report; a flash of blinding light. A voice said, "Hold it!" A man had slipped up the stairs toward them.

The man laughed. "I scaled the wall. Quite a feat, let me assure you, Miss Corby. But it was worth it."

"How did you get in here?" Connie asked sharply. She pushed Rodney away; her blue eyes smoldered.

"Rodney!" Connie whirled on him. "Aren't you going to do something?"

"What can I do?" Rodney gave her his slow smile.

"Oh, come now! You wouldn't have him do that, Miss Corby." Nevertheless the cameraman began to edge away.

"Wouldn't I! Nothing would give me more pleasure. We posed a dozen or more times, gave out interviews so that you'd let us alone . . . Can't a person have any privacy at any time anywhere?"

"Not when she's the richest girl in the world, Miss Corby." The cameraman laughed again, said he was sorry. He put his hand on the wall. He could hoist himself over it, manage the sheer drop to the beach; but how he ever had scaled it, especially keeping his camera intact, remained a puzzle.

"Aren't you going to do something?" Connie demanded of Rodney once more.

HE did not seem to resent the intrusion. "Oh, let the fellow

RAIL CONDUCTOR RETIRES AT 56

H. N. Reid, Veteran M. K. T. Conductor, Retires From Service

On January 31, H. N. Reid, veteran M. K. T. conductor, will retire after fifty-six years of railroad service. The M. K. T. magazine for January carried the following article referring to Mr. Reid, who resides at 404 West Sixth street.

"Following the completion of his run from Franklin to Parsons, one day recently he fell into conversation with a friend, observing that 'the best way to keep young is to keep busy'. He said during his more than a half-century of railroad work he had always enjoyed good health. Mr. Reid's mind is keen and alert, and his memory reaches back to the day when he accepted his first job as a brakeman.

"His first six years were with the Wabash. On March 16, 1892 he entered Katy service at Sedalia as a brakeman. On April 1, the same year, he was promoted to conductor, a position he held until 1913, when he was named salary chairman for the Katy conductors. In 1923 he returned to passenger train operation and since then has held a regular run on the flyer.

"Almost everything that could happen on a passenger train has occurred on trains in my charge," Mr. Reid said recently. He recalls with a chuckle the time several years ago when the wife of an army captain gave birth to a son on his train.

"He had just left Sedalia, when the captain told me of his wife's condition and asked for a doctor," he related. "There was no physician on the train so I impressed two women passengers into service, with the result that the baby was born in time for the mother and child to be removed to a hospital at Clinton."

"Another time a passenger on Mr. Reid's train rushed up to him and, in an excited voice, informed him a man on the car was armed and had threatened his life. Acting with caution, Mr. Reid wired ahead to have police board the train at Fort Scott, to discover later that the passenger was demented.

"Several months ago, Mr. Reid had an aged man on his train who reported he had lost his ticket. Mr. Reid suggested he look through his clothes, and noticing that the passenger kept his right hand in his trousers pocket, suggested he look there. The man refused and when he stepped from the train at the next station was met by his son.

"I'll have to mail you the ticket," the son informed Mr. Reid. "My father sold his farm this morning and has $9,500 in that pocket. He won't take his hand off that bank roll even for me."

"One of the most humorous incidents happened to Mr. Reid only last month. A woman passenger had become confused regarding her train connections and refused to believe the information he had given her.

"You don't know anything about this train," she said indignantly. "How long have you been running a train?" Doubting that she would be impressed by his 56 years of service he smiled and said 'Madam, this is only my second day. I began working for the Katy yesterday.'

THE SECOND BLOW

Why is it that a person may recover from a very serious illness or accident and at a later date die from a very minor injury or sickness? Laboratory workers, in experiments on animals, accidentally discovered the reason. Various parts of the nervous system were irritated to see what would happen. As an example of the nerves of the neck. This caused ulcers and other trouble in the digestive system. Some animals died, others recovered and were apparently well for long periods. They were later used for other experiments and nearly all died even though the irritation was very mild, such as an infection under a toe nail.

Why so? Because the FIRST BLOW had so injured the nervous system that it was incapable of withstanding subsequent injury even though slight. The SECOND BLOW may be any irritating condition. Minor irritation of nerves, if prolonged over a considerable period, may be the cause of a disaster. Any pain, any place, indicates that nerves are irritated. I can produce volumes of evidence, from scientific sources, to show that irritation of nerves produces serious damage to the brain and central nervous system. Hence one should not allow these painful conditions to continue. You may be able to tolerate it for the present but it ultimately causes serious trouble. Many of these pains are caused by spinal displacements which a chiropractor can find and correct. Do not permit them to continue, they might manifest as the SECOND BLOW.

GIRL SCOUT NOTES

Sunflower Troop of Broadway school held an investiture ceremony on Tuesday for the following girls who have completed the Tenderfoot test: Hazel Bell, Virginia Lindstrom, Willa Brunkhorst, Betty Gerster and Mildred Gould. Mrs. Welch, local director, invested the class.

Mrs. K. H. Leedom is assisting Mrs. C. A. Wright, leader of the troop in the absence of the assistant leader, Mrs. C. G. Wilson, who is vacationing at Miami Beach, Florida.

Margaret Sneed passed her Tenderfoot test on Tuesday and is now ready for the investiture. All second class scouts are working on the compass and the first class girls are studying judging of heights, weights and measurements.

Dorothy Dean, Scribe.

The Minnehaha troop of Washington school adopted a troop pennant Friday which is a green field bearing a tepee upon which are found the swastika, lightning, rain sun and moon and beneath which are the words, Minnehaha troop. A formal opening with a color guard ceremony was held with the following girls acting: Right Bearer Helen Patterson, left bearer Betty Anton, right guard, Marva Lee Barnum and left guard Kathryn Modlin.

Washington troop is rejoicing over the assistance of Mrs. James Morrow, who has consented to help with the troop. Three girls were invested at the Friday meeting. They were Betty Anton, Jacqueline Hatfield and Cleora Francke. Hazel Conner and Mable Flom have completed their Tenderfoot work and will be invested as soon as Mable Flom has recovered from an attack of chicken pox.

Betty Ann Harrison was accepted as a new member of the troop. The entire troop studied the use of a compass and at the next meeting will be taught second class first aid by Mrs. Morrow.

Betty Anton, Scribe.

The Star troop is happy to announce a new leader has joined its ranks, Mrs. H. E. Prewitt, who will after a short period of training take over the activities of the troop. It has been necessary because of the large size of the troop, to divide the patrols and form two troops from the original one. More will be heard later from the newly organized troop which is just now in the process of formation.

At Thursday's meeting another new member was accepted, Carolyn Carter of Third and Grand avenue.

Miss Ruth Ann Slane, guest instructor, taught a class in training for the hostess badge. Three girls who have completed first class scouting are eligible to work on this badge. They are Betty Collins, Mary Ethel McGowan and Lou Anamosa.

Nine girls of the first class rank worked on training a Tenderfoot and the second class girls learned about the compass from Mrs. Welch, who has been acting as the leader of the troop.

Star Troop ranks next to the Senior High Troop in number of girls who have completed the requirements for first class rank.

Marva Lee Robinson, Scribe.

The P. S. troop of Smith-Cotton high school has had an active month of scouting. On Monday, Dec. 13, we met at the home of our assistant leader, Mrs. Harvey Keens, to practice the housekeeper's badge. Each girl was assigned a task. Some of them were, washing windows, polishing silver, cleaning copper cooking utensils and cleaning refrigerator and sink. Home assignment was a note from our mother certifying that we have removed two stains from our clothing and mended a pair of hose. On Dec. 23, the troop had a Christmas party with Betty Rae Milton playing the part of Santa and distributing the gifts. Mrs. Welch, our leader then gave each girl a Kream-nickle.

Whittier troop met at noon on Tuesday because our leader, Mrs. Welch would be unable to meet the troop after school. All girls have now completed the Tenderfoot test and are beginning the second class rank tests. The Morse code is the assignment for Tuesday, Jan. 11.

Meldina Nicholson, Scribe.

Compass troop divided into two interest groups at its meeting on Wednesday. Miss Florence Hert taught the first class group hostess badge requirements and Mrs. Welch taught observation and compass to second class girls. Vera Morton was enrolled as a new member and was trained in her Tenderfoot requirements by Caroline Cloney.

Electa Wheeler, Scribe.

Shamrock troop had no meeting this week because of Sacred Heart school being closed on Monday. Regular meetings will be resumed on Monday, Jan. 10. Miss Slane, leader of Shamrock troop, acted as guest instructor at Horace Mann and Star troops this week.

The Arrow troop of Mark

Twain school spent the troop meeting period on Friday, laying plans for the year. A large percent of the girls are in uniform and those who are not plan to obtain them soon. Mrs. Lange urged all members of the troop to obtain handbooks at the first opportunity. Each girl is to choose a project for home study and help will be given her as needed by Mrs. Lange and Mrs. Mowrer. Betty Mae Barnett registered for 1938 and several girls are to be invested soon.

Frankie June Rogers, Scribe.

Horace Mann troop studied the duties of a hostess and of a guest at their last meeting and are to hand in "bread and butter" letters on Monday, Jan. 10. Ora Leone Morris enrolled as a new member of the troop.

Betty Lou Stanfield, Scribe.

The Girl Scouts are very grateful for the assistance given them in their Yuletide efforts to spread cheer in eleven unfortunate homes in the city. The following donations were received: Mrs. C. E. Cole, eleven gallons of milk and $5 in cash; Mrs. Leonard Kahrs $1 and a friend 50c. These families will be contacted from time to time and assistance given as far as the scouts are able.

The group of carolers were very happy over their project carried on during the holidays and are appreciative of the many greetings of thanks sent them. The costumes have been stored in anticipation of another season of song in 1938. They will be available to any organization or individual who wishes their service.

The Girl Scout leaders' association will hold its monthly meeting on Monday night with a supper party at the home of Mrs. Landon Welch. The study project will be "Native Rocks and Minerals". All Girl Scout leaders and assistant leaders, also Brown Owls and Tadwiny Owls, are expected to attend. Mrs. Don Lamm and Mrs. John McGrath will be visiting council members.

An important meeting of the Girl Scout council will be held on Thursday, Jan. 13, at the public library at 10 a. m. At this time the yearly reports will be heard from each committee, also the election of officers and new members for 1938. Every council member should be present.

Troop Tawawa Colored

The Lincoln P. T. A. honored the Girl Scouts of Lincoln school at their regular program on Wednesday. All girl scouts, grade school children and parents of scouts were guests as were also Mrs. Henry Menefee, Girl Scout Commissioner; Mrs. Landon Welch Girl Scout Director and Mrs. Macoe Porter, the leader of Troop Tawawa.

The program was opened with the singing of America, followed by the Lord's prayer.

Mrs. Virginia Henley Sans, of Kansas City, played "Prelude in C Minor" by Bachmanoff.

Mrs. Oscar Lawson, accompanied by Mrs. Sans sang.

Mrs. John Evans gave a reading entitled "The Prodigal Girl."

Mrs. John Webster, chairman of Troop Tawawa committee, acted as chairman of the program and presented Mrs. Welch, local Girl Scout director, who spoke on "Our Goals for Scouting in Sedalia in 1938."

Mrs. Welch complimented our leader, Mrs. Porter on the splendid work she had accomplished with the troop. She then presented Mrs. Menefee, Commissioner of Girl Scouts, who thanked Professor Hubbard for his cooperation in the scout movement and also had words of praise for the splendid troop committee organization of Tawawa troop.

Mrs. Welch then presented to Professor Hubbard a framed troop certificate bearing the names of the twenty-five girls of Lincoln school who are properly registered and also the names of the eight registered members of the troop committee. Professor Hubbard in his acceptance and response to the gift assured the continued cooperation of the school in sponsoring the troop and stated that the certificate would hang in an honored position on the walls of the hall where all could read of those who had taken upon them the obligations of scouthood.

Mrs. Harry Hopkins, president of the P. T. A. and also a member of the troop committee, closed the meeting by presenting Mrs. Porter, leader of the troop and assuring her of the continued support of the committee in her splendid work. Hearty applause was given by all present to Mrs. Porter and her troop which stood in response.

Arrangements have been made to conduct a training course in scouting each Thursday afternoon from 2 to 3:30 in the recreational room at Lincoln high school. The course is open to all interested in scouting for girls and being the general course is helpful for any line of work which may be taken up. For further particulars call the scout office or Mrs. Macoe Porter 2420-J. The course will last six to eight meetings.

Miss Roper, nurse in Hospital No. 2 has started a class in First Aid and after Jan. 9 no lessons will be repeated.

The Tawawa scouts made many shut-ins happy at Christmas with their carols. Also a family was adopted and presented with food, toys and clothing.

Minnie Dawkins, Scribe.

We met at the First M. E. church, Jan. 4 with a good attendance. We played some very instructive games before the meeting. Scouts are working hard on their tests, and a number of Scouts passed some test at this meeting. The Scout bulletin was read and discussed. Our troop planned a hike, but no definite date has been set as yet. We dismissed early with the Scout Masters' benediction. We have 125 points in the Advancement Contest.

"Brass Tacks" on the Sunday School Lesson

The Golden Text

Mark 1:3—"Make ye ready the way of the Lord."

By ALVIN E. BELL
The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for Jan. 9 is Mark 1:1-13, the Golden Text being Mark 1:3, "Make ye ready the way of the Lord."

A bearer of good news wastes no time getting to the story he has to tell. So John Mark begins his account of the "good news" or gospel, with a statement so brief as to be regarded by many Bible students as Mark's own title or superscription of his story of Christ's life: "The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God."

The Roots of the Gospel
While we find the fruits of the gospel in the New Testament, we must look for the roots of the gospel in the Old Testament. So Mark goes back to the Old Testament prophets Isaiah and Malachi to show how that all that preceded Christ was but prophetic and preparatory to his coming and ministry: "Even as it is written in Isaiah the prophet, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, who shall prepare thy way; the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make ye ready the way of the Lord, make his paths straight." This bold and rugged preacher's credentials were written on no diploma of the schools of his day, but rather in the writings of the ancient prophets of his nation. His was a ministry of utter self-denial as he ministered, "clothed with camel's hair, and a leathern girdle around his loins and did eat locusts and wild honey." Certainly, no one could accuse him of preaching for what he got out of it!

MEMBER, THE ORDER OF THE GOLDEN RULE

"Behold the Lamb of God"
John the Baptist directed attention from himself to Christ, of whom he said, "He must increase, but I must decrease." He claimed to be nothing but "a voice of one crying in the wilderness." He felt himself unworthy to render to Christ the most menial service to the King whose coming he heralded: "There cometh after me he that is mightier than I, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose." It was John's high privilege to be the last of the prophets and the first of the evangelists, to usher the Christ into his ministry and announced him as "the Lamb of God that taketh away the sin of the world." He dissuaded his own disciples from following him and pointed them to Christ as their Master. "I baptize you in water; but he shall baptize you in the Holy Spirit," he said. John's ministry was preliminary, partial and preparatory, while Christ's ministry was to be permanent, perfect and propitiatory.

Jesus Baptism and Testing
It was John's high privilege to minister at the ordination of the Messiah of prophecy when he baptized our Lord Jesus Christ, not for forgiveness of sin, but for identification with our sin: "It came to pass in those days, that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized of John in the Jordan. And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens rent asunder, and the Spirit as a dove descending upon him; and a voice came out of the heavens, Thou art my beloved Son, in thee I am well pleased." Thus God attested the perfection of Christ and his fitness to be the world's Redeemer. But Christ's perfection must first be proved by being "tempted in all points like we are," and so, for forty days Satan tempted him, but with no success, for Christ was "holy, harmless, undefiled and separate from sinners," and thus the perfect "Lamb of God." This is the gospel or "good news" of God for sinful souls of all ages.

LIBRARY TO SPONSOR A BOOK REVIEW JANUARY 13

A book review, the third in the series sponsored by the Sedalia Public Library, will be given at the library, Thursday, Jan. 13, at 7:30 p. m. Miss Jessie Blair will review "Pepita" by Victoria Mary Sackville-West.

Miss Sackville-West, by marriage, Mrs. Harold Nicholson, here portrays her ancestors. Pepita's life is reconstructed from documents and from the memory of her associates, but the book is mostly the story of her daughter Victoria, the irresponsible, exasperating, but well-loved beauty who becomes mistress of Knole, the famous English castle and show place. Her daughter writes of her with entire candor, but with evident admiration, in this family history, bizarre as any melodrama.

CLARK SAYS FDR FACES FIGHT OF ANDREW JACKSON

chances for re-election by promptly vetoing the measure.

Birth of National Banking

"Biddle, the desperate financial czar, did not scruple to use the power of his institution to create a panic in order to intimidate the president and weaken public confidence in his policies. Jackson ordered the deposits of the government of the United States from the bank. With Jackson's victory ensued the policy of independent government financing, and a little later the national banking system which endures with varying modifications to this day."

Jackson's veto message of the bill to re-charter the Bank of the United States has never been excelled, Clark said, in its declarations of what should be the proper function of government in regard to the rights of citizens.

In it, Jackson said no democracy can produce equality of talents, education and wealth, but laws should not undertake to add artificial distinctions "to make the rich richer and potent more powerful."

To those principles, the state's senior senator emphasized, "the Democratic party must always remain, as it has remained, devoted."

He asserted his party's mission was that of a great liberal force, representing the maximum of liberty to the individual, while presenting a bulwark to "capitalistic control" on one hand and communism on the other.

Just as Jackson fought the control of Biddle, so, Clark said, Roosevelt "met a situation wherein in 12 years a group of monetary barons had been able through the tenure of one of their greatest—Andrew Mellon—to control the finances of the United States."

Situation More Desperate

"Roosevelt faced a situation much more desperate than Jackson faced," Clark continued, "because on the day Roosevelt took office every bank in the United States was closed, due to a great extent to the exploitation of the nations real capital by a group which Mellon exemplified."

"The President did not hesitate. He recognized he had a great responsibility and he did not hesitate to proceed. He called congress together in extraordinary session to handle the situation. On his recommendation congress passed an emergency banking act to tide over the situation, to permit the reopening of solvent banks and to restore public confidence."

"Then congress passed another act designed to protect the smaller depositors, the federal deposit insurance act. In my judgment, if the Hoover administration had passed a similar act any time in the last two years of its tenure it would have prevented the depth of the Hoover depression."

"And then President Roosevelt recommended and congress passed, a permanent banking reorganization act. This removed the control of our banking system from Wall Street to Washington, where it belonged."

Praises Foreign Policy

Clark praised the Roosevelt administration for its foreign trade policy in the negotiation of reciprocal trade agreements and said it had "from first to last exerted every influence for the purpose of equalizing to American agriculture the disadvantage of selling in a free market and buying in a protected market."

The senator added "frankly" that he had not always agreed with Roosevelt's agricultural measures, "but no one can deny a generation to the United States of bad things."

no let up until the inevitable day of victory."

Mr. Roosevelt reviewed the struggles of Jefferson, Jackson, Theodore Roosevelt and Woodrow Wilson for what he called the "basic morals of democracy."

"A Small Number Menace"

"In our nation today," he continued, "we still have the continuing menace of a comparatively small number of people who honestly believe in their superior right to influence and direct government, and who are unable to see or unwilling to admit that the practices by which they maintain their privileges are harmful to the body politic."

"In my message to the congress on Monday, I made it abundantly clear that this administration seeks to serve the needs, and to make effective the will, of the overwhelming majority of our citizens and seeks to curb only abuses of power and privilege by small minorities."

"Thus, we in turn are striving to uphold the integrity of the morals of our democracy."

The president mentioned the administration's differences with utilities interests. Asserting he was convinced that the "great majority of local or regional operating utility companies can come to an understanding" with the government, he declared:

To Put An End To Evil

"But most of these operating companies are owned by the holding companies—pyramided holding companies—which are finance companies, not operating utility companies. Very few investors in the operating companies have lost money. But thousands of investors have lost money in buying holding company securities which had blue sky above them instead of tangible assets behind them."

"That evil of utility holding company control will not grow in the days to come because this government has now passed laws to prevent similar occurrences in the future."

"But we have not yet corrected the existing evils that flow from mistakes of the past. We cannot condone their continuance."

Mr. Roosevelt said it had been estimated that $13,000,000,000 of electric utility securities were outstanding and that the substantial control of this total was vested in the hands of owners of less than $600,000,000.

"That means that the ownership of about 4 per cent of the securities controls the other 96 per cent," the president declared.

"Here is a 96-inch dog being wagged by a four-inch tail."

The chief executive said other activities which should not be tolerated in a democracy included "price rigging, unfair competition directed against the little man, and monopolistic practices of many kinds."

GEORGE TREECE IS INJURED WHEN STRUCK BY CAR

Hit-and-Run Driver Failed To Make Stop at Main and Grand

George Treece was rushed to the Bothwell hospital Friday night after a hit-and-run driver who failed to stop for a stop sign at the intersection of Main and Grand avenue struck the 50-year-old man leaving him unconscious in the street at 8:30.

Treece, the father of eight children, had just returned from Marshall and was going to the filling station on the corner of Main and Grand when he was struck.

On regaining consciousness he stumbled to a hamburger Inn operated by "Curley" Broyles, and still dazed, asked to be taken home.

Broyles and a friend placed him in a chair while the police were called.

Officers Emmett O'Brien and Lawrence Englund, who answered the call, summoned McLaughlin's ambulance and the injured man was taken to Bothwell hospital where he was examined by Dr. J. E. Mitchell.

Other than three cuts on his face no injuries were visible. He was returned to his home Saturday.

Officers investigating the accident were unable to learn much from Treece who was obviously in great pain. No witnesses to the episode have been found and Treece himself was vague as to the description of the car which struck him.

Treece said he stepped off the curb as the car drew near. Thinking it was about to stop he began to cross the street when the auto, which he believed was a taxicab, suddenly picked up speed and struck him.

He has been unemployed for some time. At the home, 321 North Grand avenue, are six children, Elgal Lee, Helen Frances, J. R. Blanche, Hazel and George Allan. Two boys, Raymond and William are in a CCG camp in Minnesota.

LASHING IS GIVEN TO THREE ROBBERS

WILMINGTON, Del., Jan. 8.—(AP)—Three convicted robbers were stripped to the waist, tied to a post and lashed with a cat-o-nine tails today in a renewal of Delaware's centuries-old method of punishing criminals.

The punishment brought sob and half cries from Raymond Shebrook, 21, who flinched at the first of 20 lashes swished down on his back. He squirmed and hugged the ancient whipping post in the New Castle prison yard.

David Attaviani, 21, who pleaded guilty with Shebrook to robbery and larceny of an automobile, showed no sign of pain as he received 10 lashes. Arthur Spain, 45, convicted of stealing watches and a steel safe from a department store, received five lashes with the same stoicism showed by Attaviani.

A gallery of 150 men crowded into the courtyard of the county workhouse at nearby Greenbank to witness the lashings.

CREDITS HULL WITH UPTURN IN TRADE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—(AP)—The state department credited a portion of the $1,499,568,000 increase in America's foreign commerce in the first 11 months of 1937 to Secretary Hull's reciprocal trade policy today.

"There are definite indications that the trade agreements program is helping to promote mutually beneficial trade between the United States and other countries," the department said.

Observing that it was not possible to separate completely the factors contributing to the general increase, the department added:

"It is significant x x x not only that our exports have gained relatively more to the agreement countries as a group than to non-agreement countries but also that imports of American products into the agreement countries have generally increased more than have imports of the products of other countries."

"In other words, the relative position of the United States in these markets has improved."

ANSWERS REMARKS MADE BY F. D. F.

ATLANTA, Jan. 8.—(AP)—The postal committee of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association replied today to presidential remarks on newspaper mailing rates by submitting figures tending to show postal handling of papers cost publishers more than distribution by private agencies.

The committee issued a statement in reply to President Roosevelt's suggestion yesterday that publishers might take the initiative in reducing postal subsidies he said they enjoyed. The President said he believed the time was past when the govern-

Three Others Injured As Auto Runs Into Train Near St. Louis

Harry Francis, Jr., 17, of Duplo, Ill., formerly of Sedalia, was killed and three youths were injured, two seriously when their auto crashed into an Alton & Southern freight train at the Missouri Pacific crossing on state highway 157 about three miles south of East St. Louis at 6:45 o'clock Friday night.

The injured are Edward Joshua, senior in Duplo High school, who suffered a fractured upper jaw and a crushed right hand; Ralph Kimbrell, 19, who suffered lacerations of the scalp and a possible fractured skull, and Willard Dowd, 22, a brakeman for the Missouri Pacific railroad, driver of the car, who suffered lacerations of the head. All live in Duplo.

Through Windshield

Francis, an occupant in the front seat with Dowd, was hurled through the windshield of the window on his side of the car and under the train, and was apparently killed instantly. The other three were taken to St. Mary's hospital in East St. Louis.

Dowd, who was released after treatment said he did not see the train until it loomed up before him and he was unable to stop in time to avoid the impact. The automobile was demolished. Dowd could not recall how fast he was going at the time of the accident. The four youths were on their way to a basketball game between the Duplo and Mascoutah high schools at Mascoutah.

Ran Into Train

The train, which was north-bound, was composed of 60 cars and a caboose. The automobile which was going east, struck the fifty-ninth car, according to members of the train crew. The train was in charge of Ernest Davis of Duplo, conductor, and George Broadhurst, 2949 Virginia avenue, East St. Louis, engineer.

The car, driven by Dowd, belonged to his grandfather, J. N. Hartsell of Duplo, an engineer for the Missouri Pacific railroad.

Harry Francis was enrolled in the third grade at Washington school in 1927 and 1928. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Francis, who lived at 1301 East Seventh street.

ITALY AND NAZI EXCHANGE LABOR

ROME, Jan. 8.—(AP)—Germany and Italy will exchange 30,000 farm and industrial workers in March as an experiment in strengthening both political and economic bonds of the Rome-Berlin axis.

The experiment in mass labor collaboration, announced today, will send Italians skilled in land reclamation and production of wheat, potatoes, and sugar beets to southern and western Germany to reinforce the Reich campaign for greater harvests.

At the same time German artisans will come to Italy to place their technical training at the service of Italian industry.

Under the agreement Italian workers will receive food, lodging and about 40 cents a day in wages, the amount paid German farm hands. The German government will pay their transportation.

Special trains will deliver the Italy-German work armies en masse at their destinations.

The Italians will travel in groups of from 10 to 25 each, with a captain and interpreter. The leaders will be farm laborers.

FIVE LEFT DEAD IN DAY OF RIOTS

TUNIS, Tunisia, Jan. 8.—(AP)—A thousand rioting Nationalists today left five dead and many wounded in the main square of Bizerte after a two hour battle with police and soldiers in the Mediterranean coastal city.

The rioters were armed with paving blocks and revolvers. Three soldiers and a police captain were among the injured.

Nationalists held meetings throughout this French protectorate last night, following the expulsion of Hassan Nouri, one of their leaders.

During the night leaflets in Arabic were distributed in Bizerte calling for a general strike, closed shops, and a mass demonstration in protest, warning that those who refused to act would be killed.

44 STRIKERS ARE TAKEN IN A RAID

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 8.—(AP)—Police tonight raided the CIO United Automobile Workers of America strike headquarters near the Ford assembly plant here and Lieut. Emmett Morrison said 44 men were taken into custody.

He said the raid followed an attack on a man who gave his name as Charles Fisco, 28-year-old Ford worker.

Morrison stated the men would be viewed at police headquarters by Fisco, in an effort to identify his assailants. Officers said a dance was in progress at union headquarters when they arrived.

Fisco told police the attack took place as he pursued three men he had detected pouring acid on his automobile. He declared acid was thrown on him. Physicians as city hospital said he was burned on the face, neck and body but that his condition was not serious.

CONGRESS ASSAILED BY CIVIL SERVICE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—(AP)—The Civil Service Commission advised congress today that the legislators' failure to place employees of newly-created government agencies under civil service was becoming "a matter of grave public concern."

The commission said in its annual report there was no important extension of the civil service during the fiscal year of 1937. On the contrary, the report asserted, 146 measures introduced during the year exempted personnel of new agencies from civil service regulations. Twenty-one of the bill became law.

"Wholesale exemptions such as have been permitted in the past year must cease if the merit system is to prevail," the commission said.

It made these recommendations:

Place first, second and third-class postmasters under civil service.

Authorize the President to draft all non-policy forming employees into the classified service.

Make retirement compulsory for government employees at the age of 70 and optional at 60 years, after 30 years' service, or at 62 after 15 years' service.

FOUR JUDGES IN ST. LOUIS INDICTED

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 8.—(AP)—Four justices of the peace and a deputy constable in St. Louis county today were indicted by a grand jury investigating alleged "speed trap" activities on county highways.

"Unwarranted arrests of motorists . . . and the illegal collection of fees has been going on for a long time and has reached the proportions of a racket in the last year or so," the grand jury statement declared.

All of the charges are misdemeanors and the maximum penalty on conviction is one year in jail and a fine of $500.

SYMPHONY WILL HOLD PRACTICE THIS AFTERNOON

Finishing Touches Are Added to Program to Be Given Jan. 18

With only ten more days until the next concert by the Sedalia Symphony Orchestra, the conductor, Abe Rosenthal, is putting the finishing touches to the program and has called a special rehearsal of the string section for this afternoon. In spite of bad weather and holiday occasions that kept several of the players away from several of the rehearsals, the numbers to be used in the next concert have been taking form very rapidly and satisfactorily under Mr. Rosenthal's direction, and he promises Sedalia music lovers another musical treat a week from next Tuesday night.

Mrs. Gladys Havens, the contralto soloist, who will appear as guest artist at the next concert has chosen as her two numbers, "Swing Low Sweet Chariot," a well known and very popular spiritual, and "Alleluiah," which will be remembered by theatre-goers as the number used recently by Deanna Durbin in the movie, "One Hundred Men and A Girl." Those who know Mrs. Havens, and others who have heard or read about her, are highly gratified to know that she will appear with the orchestra, as she seldom appears in concert except in the larger cities. Sedalians are indeed fortunate in having this opportunity to hear an outstanding artist of Mrs. Havens' calibre. She has promised to come to Sedalia next Sunday for a rehearsal with the orchestra in order to become familiar with their music and to enable Mr. Rosenthal to make any changes that may be necessary to adapt the orchestrations of her music to the instruments in the orchestra for the best possible results.

The selections to be used in the concert January 18th are as follows:

1. Overture to "Phedre", by Massenet.
2. Symphony No. 12, by Haydn.
3. "In The Tavern," from "Suite From The South," by Nicodemus.
- Intermission.
4. (a) "Alleluiah," by Mozart. (b) "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot," Negro spiritual. Soloist, Mrs. Gladys Havens, contralto.
5. "Valse Triste," by Sibelius.
6. "Dance of the Hours," from "Gloppina," by Ponchielli.

GOLDEN GLOVES TO SHOW THEIR WARES HERE WEDNESDAY JANUARY 12

Boxers From Kansas City and Chillicothe May Appear

Sedalia Golden Glove boxers will return to the Sedalia "square ring" Wednesday night, January 12 with a show which will present more than twelve fast bouts. The Golden Glovers who tripped to Joplin and other boys who are working out at the Engine house will appear on this card with several bouts presented by colored boxers of Sedalia interested in the Golden Gloves.

The opponents for the boxers will be chosen from out-of-town boxers, Coach Joe Ordway announced Saturday night. Amateur boxers from Kansas City and Chillicothe have been invited to come to Sedalia to appear on this "trial bout" show, but as yet the names of the boys expected to come have not been received. If at all possible a full team from Chillicothe will be brought to Sedalia or vice versa with Kansas City depending on what matches these teams already have.

Golden Glove boxers of Sedalia made an exceptionally good showing at Joplin and the using of out-of-town boxers is believed to be a benefit for the Sedalians, therefore the out-of-town fight matches will do much to help improve the Sedalians.

All of the boys who made the Joplin trip and who are in condition will be matched for Wednesday night's card to give the Sedalia fans some idea of what improvements have been made in the past three weeks over the December "trial bout" show.

The matches and the names of the boxers to appear on the card will probably be announced Monday night by Coach Ordway, as to the white boxers.

Tentative Colored Bouts

Jack Blue, the trainer of the colored boxers for this section late Saturday announced the semi-final bout to be presented on the "trial bout" show. Blue has seven fights scheduled which will give the fans some interesting and fast flying leather of the colored ring-masters.

The colored boxers have been going through three weeks of strenuous workouts to get into condition for the final tournament and they are in "tip-top" shape for the Wednesday night events. Matches as announced by Blue are:

Roy Banks, 168, of Montserrat and "Jimmy" Baylor, 169; "Battling" Thurston, 118, and Newton Foster, 118; Stoltey Avery, 168, of Windsor and Walter McFerrin, 160; Marvin Payne, 118, and "Bill" Whitley, 122; Ollie Whitley, 130, and Ted Roseman, 133; David Hill, 175 and "Little" Dan Watts, 170; Franklin Powell, 108 and Charles Shobe, 102.

The Banks-Baylor bout is slated as the semi-windup and should be a tough battle. The Avery-McFerrin match also should not be overlooked as a thriller for the night.

Hill's opponent is a new entry to the fighting sport but is considered a "tough" boy for him.

SAN ROMANI BREAKS 3,000 METER RECORD

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—(AP)—Archie San Romani, one of the country's greatest milers, let loose with a terrific stretch drive tonight to nip Indiana's great Don Lash and hand up a new American citizen's record for 3,000 meters in the Knights of Columbus track and field meet at the 13th regiment armory.

Running over flat boards and competing at the distance for the first time, the former Emporia (Kas.) teachers ace stepped the distance in the remarkable time of 8:27.4 to clip three and four-fifths second off the mark established by Joie Ray in 1925. The time was only a second slower than Paavo Nurmi's world record made on Madison Square Garden's banked oval in 1925.

RIGGS TO MEET GRANT IN BILTMORE TOURNEY

CORAL GABLES, Fla., Jan. 8.—Bobby Riggs, the nation's No. 1 tennis player, smashed into the Miami Biltmore tournament finals today with a straight set victory over young Frank Kovacs of Oakland, Cal., 6-3, 10-8, 6-0.

Tomorrow Riggs plays Bitsy Grant, Atlanta's giant-killer, who is seeking permanent possession of the Col. Henry L. Doherty trophy. Grant, who eliminated Wood Cooke of Portland, Ore., yesterday to reach the finals, topped Don Budge in last year's tournament after winning the 935 renewal from Berkeley, Calif.

The ADCO'S Sedalia's Independent Basketball Team

THOMSON LEADS IN LOS ANGELES OPEN

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 8.—(AP)—Jimmy Thomson blasted away again today to gain a commanding lead at the half-way mark of the $5,000 Los Angeles open golf tournament and hang up a 36-hole record for his fellow shotmakers to aim at in coming encounters on the nation's fairways.

The seige gun of Shawnee-on-Delaware continued to fire away at par figures and wound up the day's effort with a 66, six strokes under par for the Harding course of the Griffith Park layout, and a total score of 131 for 36 holes.

With his opening round score of 65, he had been six strokes under par 71 for the Wilson course, and today's total left him six strokes ahead of his nearest friendly enemies, Johnny Revolta of Evanston, Ill., and Willie Goggin of San Francisco, with whom he started out on even terms this morning.

The 36-hole score of 131 was one shot under the record—said by Fred Corcoran, tournament impresario of the country's professionals, to be the best on the books up to now. The previous mark was set by Horton Smith in tournament play in 1930, and Slamin' Sammy Sneed in the Miami open two weeks ago. Both shot 66's in succeeding rounds.

GRUENIG IS HIGH SCORER IN A. A. U. BASKETBALL

DENVER, Jan. 8.—(P)—Bob Gruenig, the Denver Safeways' 6 foot 8 inch center, seized command of the scoring race in the Missouri Valley A. A. U. basketball league this week.

The chief gunner of the National A. A. U. champions and current league pacemakers not only has scored the most points with 112, but has by far the highest average—16 points per game for seven games. Gruenig, leading scorer last year, has made 50 field goals and 12 free throws.

GOLDEN GLOVES TO SEE ACTION

Dean Murray (right) and Denver L. "Buck" Miller, (left) two of Sedalia's junior bantamweights who are to be given matches on the "trial bout" card Wednesday night. Murray and Miller fought each other last month and won the favor of the fans, although Miller received a close decision. The opponents are to be chosen Monday. They will be evenly matched and fans can expect to see two fast bouts.

Three Sedalia Golden Glovers Win in Matches at Joplin Mo.

"BILLY" SMITH IS VICTOR IN ALL THREE ROUNDS

Other Winners Were "Mike" Hughes and "Buck" Scheerer

Sedalia's Golden Glove boxers journeyed to Joplin Friday night and emerged with three winning bouts out of ten bouts with the remainder of the young fighters losing by close decisions. The only knockout on the card was a technical one when Tommie Craig was forced to quit because of a severe pain in his left side.

Sedalia Victors

"Billy" Smith, 123 won over Elmer Hughes, 119, of Joplin; "Mike" Hughes, 154, won over Paul Cook, 152, of Joplin; "Buck" Scheerer, 145 of Tipton (a Sedalia Golden Glove entry) won over George Graham, 145 of Joplin.

Smith in his fight against Hughes worked many left hooks into his opponents chin and head and worked him down with right jabs to the body to take all three rounds. Smith knocked his opponent down three times; once in each round. Smith was in his usual form of 1937 when he was one of the Democrat-Capital's representatives in the Golden Gloves from Sedalia. With the three weeks left for training and hard workouts he should make a fine showing in the tournament.

"Mike" Hughes in a steady fashion and did not let the whirlwind start of the first round of his opponent, Paul Cook, worry him. Hughes poured rights and lefts into Cook during this round and the Joplin fighter was slowed down considerably. The second round Hughes took with little trouble and the third round was a cinch for Hughes. He looks good and should be trouble for fighters in the tournament.

"Buck" Scheerer, who hails from Tipton and entered in the Sedalia district tournament, was not in such good condition for his fight but whipped his opponent to take the decision of the judges and referee. Scheerer had been on the sick list the past two weeks and unable to workout, however, he is now ready to resume training and should likewise be a trouble maker in the tournament.

Pleased With Showing

Coach Joe Ordway and Assistant Trainer, Clarence Henley, were well satisfied with the showing of the other fighters. Both agree, with the three weeks left for training, they should show much improvement and be all set for the tournament bouts. There was not a complaint by either man as to the conduct of the Sedalia boxers and they praised the Joplin boys for their showing.

Craig had been out of the workouts recently because of pleurisy pains in his left side. The past week he has been training hard at the engine house and apparently was in condition. After leading the first two rounds over his opponent, Sidney St. Clair, lanky 145 pound boxer, Craig leaned on the ropes and was carried to his corner suffering from a pleurisy attack in his left side. There is no argument that the fight would have been close had it completed the three rounds. St. Clair put up a good fight.

Martin-Wilson Match Fast

One of the outstanding fights on the card was that of "Bud" Martin, 150, and Woodrow Wilson, 150. Martin gave the Joplin boxer much trouble throughout the three rounds but was unable to win the decision of the judges and referee. Wilson was entitled to the decision inasmuch as his scoring points were slightly more than the Sedalians.

One of the best matches of the lighter weighted boys was that of Pete Stuart and Art Greer, 130 pounders. Greer of Joplin tallied up the winning points with the two giving an excellent display of sportsmanship.

"Jimmy" White, 112 pounder of Joplin outpointed D. L. "Buck" Miller, 113 of Sedalia and this fight was exceptionally good. Miller put up a good fight but lost the bout in the first two rounds, coming back in the third too late.

TALES IN TIDBITS

About Baseball Big Business and Labor

Diamond Industry Is Benevolent Monopoly

Ball Players Drive Pretty Good Bargains

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—The fact that President Roosevelt called upon big business and labor to co-operate reminds us that almost any day now you can expect to read about some outfielder, who ought to have to pay his way into the park, sending back his $11,500 contract and demanding $11,501. And threatening to stay out of baseball and conduct his poolroom all summer if he doesn't get it.

Considering the number of January holdouts, it is amazing that the magnates have enough men on hand in April to open up the parks. It is odd, too, how many lucrative occupations holdouts seem to be able to acquire during the off season, jobs they just hate to tear themselves away from. But in the end, the holdout finally surrenders, compromises at a figure that really tickles him to death, and goes out there and hustles for the boss.

They Do Pretty Well

It is a tribute to the business management of the industry that so many salary disputes are ironed out amicably. Of course baseball is a monopoly, and the player either can sign up or spend the summer in the poolroom back home, but the fact that most of the wage slaves (3 p. m. to 5 p. m.) are satisfied does reflect credit on the owners. If the players were not getting just about what they seem to be worth, it's a cinch there would be either a labor union in baseball, or a large number of the lads would really stay out.

As a matter of fact, there have been few holdouts during the last 30 years. Edd Roush was a conspicuous example, and when he told John McGraw he would have to get along without him and then actually carried out the threat he leased a singular niche in the game's hall of fame.

Drive Good Bargains

Of course there have been financial injustices here and there. The White Sox of 1919 was an underpaid team, man for man. Every man on the club thought he was underpaid, too, and it is this general belief didn't help toward giving the game that crooked world series, it certainly didn't foster prevention of the affair.

Ball players are rugged individuals and they usually manage to drive a pretty good bargain with the front office, in which they are assisted, to be sure, by the publicity their deals are given on the sports pages. As a class I'd say ball players have a keen sense of the value of a dollar. Maybe we'd better make that a dime, for if you've ever been around them in hotels or training camps, you are aware they flash more dimes than dollars. In a word, they're tight.

They are paid off on the basis of what they did last year. A pitcher who may have signed for $7,500 in 1937, won 20 games, would want something like $20,000 in 1938, and may get somewhere between $12,000 and $15,000. He'll get that, of course, whether he wins one game or 30. But if he wins one game this year, he'll be a very easy person to sign in 1939.

Lou Gehrig asked for $50,000 last year and got $36,000, which probably pleased him no end. It's pretty nice work, at that.

PIRATES BUY AN EXPENSIVE ROOKIE

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 8.—(P)—The Pittsburgh Pirates, searching for "new faces", announced today they had expended $75,000 in cash and $25,000 in player values during the off-season to acquire the year's highest priced rookie and five other prize prospects.

This was a greater outlay for new players than was made by any other major league club, said President Bill Benswanger, whose star outfielder, Paul Waner, accused him of wanting "cheaper faces" instead of new ones.

Johnny Rizzo, hard-hitting Columbus, O., outfielder is the highest priced recruit entering the majors in 1938, according to the tag placed on him by Benswanger.

In order to lift the slugger from the St. Louis Cardinals' farm system, Pittsburgh paid $25,000 in cash and gave up Catcher Tommy Padden from the Pirates' own staff and Outfielder Bud Hafey and First Baseman Bernard Cobb, who were wearing Pirate strings in the minors.

to outscore his Joplin opponent.

"Bob" Smith, 145 pound Sedalian, lost to Harry Gould, 147, in a fast three round contest. Smith slipped on the canvas when Gould hit him on the jaw and remained down for a count of eight only to jump to his feet fighting furiously in an endeavor to even things up, but was unable to overcome the points of Gould.

Lyle Sneathen, newcomer in the Golden Gloves, who has had boxing gloves on only twice before his Friday night match with David Remillard, 150 pounds, put up a good showing despite inexperience and with three weeks of training is expected to make a great showing. Remillard, a well trained boxer had trouble fighting his new found foe but demonstrated his wares very efficiently to win a decision.

Walter Martin, 148, lost a decision to George Beeler, also 148, in one of the best bouts of the evening. Martin displayed a fighting heart throughout the three bouts and swapped fairly even punches with his opponent, but in two knockdowns Martin accepted eight counts on each.

All Golden Glovers are requested to report for a workout at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the engine house. Workouts will be held Monday and Tuesday night before the boxing events on Wednesday, January 12.

The team was accompanied to Joplin by Ollie McMullin, "Bunny" Fischer, Al Lucke, D. Kelly Scruton, Clarence Henley and Joe Ordway.

Chemists Defeat Warrensburg 63 to 25

In a one-sided basketball contest Friday night the Werlings of Warrensburg were swamped by the ADCO Chemists on the Smithton court by a score of 63 to 25.

The clever team work of the Sedalians proved too much for the visiting Warrensburg team. After the first two minutes of play the teams were knotted 2-2, but soon the ADCO boys slipped ahead and continued throughout the game with the lead and never once were threatened.

Forrest Zey and Manager "Bunny" Taylor were the leading scorers with 17 points each, while Roger Ayres was crowding them with 16 points. The entire team worked to perfection throughout the full game and their clever passing was outstanding.

For the visiting Clothiers Walker was high point man making 13 of the 25 points. Appleman, center, was playing well with four goals. Both gave the Chemists plenty of worry through the game.

NAME OUMET THE CAPTAIN OF 1938 WALKER CUP TEAM

Goodman and Billows Lead Selection of Association

COMMITTEE DRAFTS NEW STYMIE RULING

Executive Board Choice Is No Surprise to Experts of Golf

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—(P)—The United States Golf Association today named a 1938 Walker cup golf team of nine players and two alternates to be captained by Francis Ouimet, and adopted a one-year modification of the stymie rule.

The make-up of the team which will meet the British at St. Andrews, Scotland, June 3-4 occasioned little surprise. In addition to Ouimet, a Boston veteran, who has been a member of each squad since the matches were inaugurated in 1922, the men invited to be on the team were:

Johnny Goodman of Omaha, Neb., national amateur champion; Ray Billows of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., runner-up to Goodman at Portland, Ore., last August; Johnny Fischer of Cincinnati, 1936 title-holder and 1937 semi-finalist; Marvin (Bud) Ward of Olympia, Wash.; Reynolds Smith, Dallas, Tex.; Fred Haas, Jr., of New Orleans, intercollegiate champion; Charles (Chuck) Kocsis of Detroit, and Charles R. Yates of Atlanta, Ga.

Named as alternates were T. Sufferin Tailer of New York and Don Moe of Portland, Ore. Moe, a member of the international squad in 1930, staged a come-back last year that carried him to the quarter-finals, where he lost to Goodman by 2 and 1.

The U. S. G. A. executive committee, which reported the team selections to the annual meeting, also drafted the substitute stymie rule, which is to be in effect for one year "as a trial only."

The present rule states that, when the balls are lying on the green within six inches of each other, the one nearer the hole may be lifted. The modification adds that the ball lying nearer the hole also may be lifted if it is within six inches of the hole, regardless of the position of the other ball.

Retiring President John G. Jackson explained that the executive committee felt that the modification would "eliminate a good many causes of complaint," and that "there is no solution of the stymie problem that would be satisfactory to everybody."

While pointing to the fact that the original stymie rule was drafted before the days of the lively ball and fast greens, the executive committee also expressed the opinion that "it would not be desirable to eliminate a feature which has been part of the game for over a hundred years without giving a thorough trial to modifications which may remove the principal objections to the stymie and at the same time preserve it in match play."

Other steps which had been suggested a year ago, some of them tried out in 1937 by sectional associations, were (1) abolish the stymie, (2) retain it without change, (3) permit the player farther away from the hole to concede his opponent's putt (tried in 1920 and abandoned), (4) confine the present rule to self-laid stymies, (5) expand the original six-inch limitation to twelve inches.

CARDINALS' VICE-PRESIDENT TO BE GUEST SPEAKER

FULTON, Mo., Jan. 8.—(P)—Robert L. Finch, vice president of the St. Louis Cardinal minor league baseball system, has been selected as one of the guest speakers at the thirty-third annual "Kingdom of Callaway" dinner here, the evening of Jan. 18.

George Carleton of Cedar City, in charge of the event, said he expected last year's attendance record of more than 800 men and women—"in all walks of life"—to be exceeded.

The annual affair has grown to its present proportions from an idea first suggested by a former newspaper man.

PROMOTION GIVEN TO A. B. RIDGWAY

After forty years as a traveling salesman on the road for the Sigo Iron Store Company, and eight years in the St. Louis headquarters before that, A. B. Ridgway, 204 West Fourth street, will leave the road and take a position in the St. Louis office. The move is a promotion for Mr. Ridgway, but means his removal from Sedalia, and accompanied by Mrs. Ridgway he will leave next Thursday for Webster Groves to reside.

Mr. Ridgway entered the employ of the company August 1, 1890, and went on the road in September 1898 selling its products, heavy hardware such as supplies for blacksmith shops, machinists, etc. He is one of five, now associated with the firm, who were with it when he entered the company's employ, another being his brother, Dodson Ridgway.

IDEAS ON CARING FOR BABY

A professor of diseases of infants in one of our largest hospitals, has written an article on the care of the newborn which contradicts most of the day conceptions. He says that about a year ago the practice of putting new-born infants in one hospital was accepted as the method. This made it easier to apply their needs by routine care, but the experience of finding homes has shown that such segregation hinders the dissemination of information.

The safest place for a hospital is in a crib beside the bed of the mother, where a safety is established around both the mother and the baby. The matter of bathing the newborn, the history runs like this: First, the irritating soap was used; then the coarse towels (cheesecloth instead); then both went and a spray bath substituted. To avoid all the and infections to which the skin is subject, the best is to cleanse the new-born with sterile oil soon after birth, remove the oil with soap water, and then leave the without any kind of a bath for at least a week.

Of prohibition against bathing should not apply to the region of the navel, which must be cleaned several times a day with alcohol.

The best place to change the baby is right in the baby's bed. The nurse who changes the baby of a number of infants at the same time always wash her hands carefully between each one, because infections are spread that way and often a fermentative disease develops right after the baby is taken home. An infant's skin is usually acid; a weak solution is recommended for the cleaning of the skin in the diaper region.

Only Water Given
The mother begins to give the only thing to feed the baby is water. The old practice of giving sugar—a sugar teat likely to cause loose bowels—is a method regarded as a mistake, and some doctors try to stop the great loss of weight which occurs in the first three days of life by feeding. But this also results in trouble, and the fact that so many infants are sick to food eruptions on the face during the first few weeks may be the result of this. It is a really big problem which is arising today is the decline in maternal feeding. Breast feeding still is the ideal thing for the infant, and every one should have the advantage of at least a few weeks of it.

GAIN ON STOCKS DURING THE WEEK

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—(AP)—The stock market chalked off the initial week of 1938 with the first general advance in more than a month.

The list finished the starting lap of the New Year today with industrial favorites pushing up 1 to more than 3 points.

In dealings that were not exceptionally lively, motors, steels, coppers and specialties pushed forward from the start and despite late profit realizations, most ended around best levels of the day.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was up 1 point at 46.6 in the two-hour proceedings. On the week this composite showed a net gain of 3.6. It was the largest upturn for any week since Oct. 30. Transfers totaled 779,000 shares. Values for the latest six days was considerably under that for the preceding period.

Announcements that Chrysler was recalling 55,000 employees to resume work on new car assemblies Jan. 11, and that Ford was putting 25,000 more men to work Jan. 17, bolstered sentiment.

Contributed to the painting of the band stand at Liberty park as did the Missouri Pacific Supervisors club, these two organizations furnished the paint while the park board supervised the painting.

The Boosters were hosts to several out of town speakers as well as numerous local speakers who addressed the club at various times during the past year. The Sedalia club is one of the largest on the system and is rated as one of the best, both in the participation of social activities and in the contribution of funds for civic welfare.

GRANTS MADE FOR ASSISTANCE
BASED ON NEEDPhase of Social Security
Law Is Explained
Through Bulletin

Many persons are under the impression that the monthly payments to the aged and dependent children under the Public Assistance provisions of the present Social Security law in Missouri, constitute payment of flat amounts regardless of a showing of need. This probably is due to the fact that these assistance grants are popularly but erroneously termed State Old Age Pensions and Widows Pensions, and are therefore confused with Veteran's Pensions, Railroad Retirement Pensions, Policemen's and Firemen's Pensions which are payable regardless of a showing of need, according to Miss Roseanne Dugan, county secretary-director in Pettis County, who today quoted a recent bulletin from George I. Haworth, State Administrator of Social Security Commission of Missouri.

"This phase of the Social Security law is based strictly on financial need," said Mr. Haworth. "Although a maximum possible grant was fixed by the state legislature, grants will be made on an individual basis and in accordance with the conditions existing in each case. Therefore, maximum amounts will be awarded only in rare cases where living expenses are high and the applicant has many dependents."

Mr. Haworth explained that each person who makes application for aid is visited in his home by a county welfare workers who studies his particular home conditions. The worker makes out a budget covering the necessary expenditures of the family; then she checks on any sources of income within the family, or other resources or support they may have with which to furnish shelter, food and clothing.

"The amount the applicant is granted will depend upon how much the worker's estimate of necessary monthly expenditures exceeds the amount of available resources and support which the applicant has," continued Mr. Haworth. "The worker must also find documentary proof that the applicant is within the age and residence requirements laid down by law."

"The worker turns in a report as to the applicant's need and legal eligibility, together with a recommendation as to whether assistance should be granted, and if so, what the amount should be. It is upon these reports that the county secretary-director and the district supervisor makes their decisions."

PRECAUTIONS TO REDUCE ACCIDENTS

JEFFERSON CITY, Jan. 8.—Revoking drunken drivers' licenses and Saturday night invasions of small towns to inspect automobile headlights will be parts of a start highway patrol campaign to reduce the number of accidents on Missouri highways in 1938.

The campaign includes "spot maps" on which to record accidents.

Although highway department figures have not been completed, Harry Griffith, safety engineer, estimates there were 540 accident deaths on state highways in 1937.

Many drivers who later will be on the highways may be reached more easily as they gather in small towns on Saturday evening, explained Col. B. Marvin Casteel in ordering headlight inspections in off-the-highway towns.

Col. Casteel, highway patrol superintendent, said on the subject of drunken drivers:

"We're going to enforce the driver's license law as strictly as possible. Intoxicated drivers are going to have their licenses revoked."

As another phase of the attempt to reduce the number of accidents, each crash reported to the patrol will be marked by a red dot on the "spot" maps which have been distributed to each of the six troop commanders.

"When too many dots begin to appear in one place," the patrol superintendent related, "we'll know there's something wrong at that spot and corrective steps will be taken."

Completion of its radio system to obtain constant contact with each of the patrol's 125 men, and attainment of complete cooperation between the highway patrol and local law enforcement agencies are other items on the 1938 program.
